Come On Down To Waretown

Copyright 1979 Pete Curry

Pete Curry speaks of this song as a personal statement and humble contribution to the Albert brothers and all the people who joined in the music at the Home Place. However, his personal statement has expressed so well the sentiments that we hold in common that it has become the unofficial theme song of the Pinelands Cultural Society.

VERSE] G
D7
C
I re-member one Sep-tember when I stopped by an old music
G D7
C store. There were women and children singing while a man played gui-tar on the G D7
C floor. So I asked the man as I shook his hand, Can you tell me where I might G D7
C find a place to call home where the music's your own? I've been looking a G CHORUS
C
G
C long lonesome time. He said, Come on down to Waretown and you will find me D7
G D7
there. Just turn left at the sign. Leave your troubles be-hind. Come early and we'll save you a chair.
C
G

1.